CASTLE MUSEUM TO HOST FREE HOLIDAY PARTY

What began as something as simple as dozens of children lining up to see Santa Claus has evolved into one of the biggest holiday celebrations in Saginaw.

Since 2002 the Castle Museum of Saginaw County History has hosted a free holiday celebration at the museum directly following the annual PRIDE parade.

On Saturday, November 21st the Castle Museum will once again host its family-friendly party from Noon to 4 p.m.

Children of all ages are invited to stop by the museum after the parade to see Santa, get their face painted, send Santa's elves a telegram, make holiday crafts, and much more. Children will be able to get their picture taken with Santa for a minimal cost, go on a scavenger hunt, or watch a holiday movie. Visitors are welcome to explore the museum and learn more about its many exhibits.

For more information about Holiday Fun at the Castle, please call Ruth Mancina at (989) 752-2861, Ext. 315.

The Castle Museum is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Sunday from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The Historical Society of Saginaw County is committed to serve the community by telling the continuing story of the people of the Saginaw region through exploration, preservation, and presentation of their historical and cultural heritage.
